

Lomita Church Cited for Work With Missions

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church was fifth in mission contribution during the year, it was revealed at the Southern Baptist Convention in San Diego this week. The church was cited for its contribution to the mission work, according to Rev. Robert A. Wells, pastor.

Three of the church leaders were named to offices for the coming year during the convention.

Rev. Wells will serve on the state board of directors; Edwin T. Isbell, education and music director, will serve on the board of directors for the Sunnycrest Children's Home in Bakersfield; and Loman Carter will continue on the board of directors for the California Baptist College. This will be Carter's fourth term on the college board.

The Deacon's nominating committee meeting has been scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday, Pastor Wells reported.

GRUDGE DUEL SET FOR DRAG STRIP SATURDAY NIGHT

A drag strip grudge duel between Lefty Mundersbach of Rivera and Jack Engle, Santa Monica, will feature Saturday's action at Lions Associated Drag Strip, Long Beach, at 7:30 p.m.

Engle will pilot Sidewinder I, in which Jack Chrisman of Compton has just installed a new Oldsmobile engine. Mundersbach drives the Joe Mailard-built, dual-engined Chev that turned 160.5 mph on the big 223rd St. strip Saturday night.

Mickey Thompson of El Monte, director of LADS, said a $50 bond will go to the winner.
